Notice of Annual General Meeting 2024

We wish to advise you of the Annual General Meeting (AGM) for the Belonging Matters' Association for 2023-2024.

Please note that anyone can attend but only members can vote.

It is our great pleasure to welcome Michelle Browning and Emily Raymond as our guest presenters who will be sharing about iDecide: a decision making course for people with an intellectual disability.

Guest Presenters

Dr Michelle Browning is a nationally recognised supported decision-making practice leader. She completed her doctoral studies exploring supported decision-making practice in Canada in 2018. Michelle has helped develop, implement and evaluate trials of supported decision-making across Australia. She has assisted government and non-government organisations to produce resources, policy and practice guidelines. She is passionate about helping individuals and organisations develop their skill in the practice of supported decision-making and become champions of cultural change.

Emily Raymond is an Administrative Assistant at a Women's Health organisation and at Belonging Matters. She also plays an integral role in organising the Belonging Matters' Advisory Council. Emily is passionate about supported decision making, and has recently co-designed and co-facilitated a supported decision-making course with Dr Michelle Browning called iDecide. The course assists people with intellectual disability to become more informed about decision making.

Emily is also the business owner of Em's Gems in which she makes and sells her craft. In her spare time, Emily enjoys going to concerts and movies with friends, as well as creativ pursuits including scrapbooking and card making.
